

TAHE MARINE AQUA MOON PE

ABOUT AQUA MOON PE

Aqua Moon PE kayak can be paddled by everyone. This kayak has a stable hull and can be used for surfing and/or to exploring rivers and the coastline.

With excellent stability and easy handling on the water it is perfect for beginners, but can also fit more experienced paddlers as well. It has a comfortable seating area which gives good primary back support. Kayak has paddle holder on the side and a console in the front with bottle holder to keep your necessary items within reach. Aqua moon is equipped with one rear storage area that is big enough to carry your gear for a nice day on the water. Replaceable keel protection in the rear will protect the boat and safety lines on the sides will keep your kayak visible in the dark. 4 scupper holes with bungs are installed to drain out any excessive water and they won't let water in. Carry handles in rear and front plus side carry handles makes it easy to handle the boat. Aqua Moon Basic kayak is made from single layer polyethylene.
